

What is the difference between local radio doing traffic reports and satellite doing the same thing. If I choose to listen to satellite radio over local stations, then it must be my decision. I choose to pay for the programming I'm listening to rather than listen to the dribble profered by local idiots that play the same tune every day at the same time. Satellite radio fill a very big void.

Don't interfere with my right to choose what I listen to.